I wish to attend the conference on:

2 October (Standard rate £7.50, Concessionary rate £5.00) – includes buffet

3 October (Standard rate £12.00, Concessionary rate £8.00) – includes lunch & refreshments

4 October (Standard rate £9.00, Concessionary rate £6.00) – includes lunch & refreshments

If you wish to attend on all days – 2, 3 & 4 October – there is a 20% discount (i.e. Standard rate £22.80, Concessionary rate £15.20).

Please tick if you believe you are eligible for the concessionary rate †

† This reduced rate is available to those of student status currently enrolled at a UKHEI (other than University of St Andrews or SOAS – please see note below), St Andrews townfolk (those residing within postcode areas beginning KY16 8 and KY16 9) and retired members of staff of the University of St Andrews. Proof of your status must be presented at registration. For examples, a valid student photo identity card for students, and proof of identity and residence for townfolk (such as a driving license, or credit card along with a utility bill).

For those currently affiliated to our sponsor institutions (the University of St Andrews and SOAS, University of London) there is no charge for attendance at the conference. However, please be aware that these free places are limited and proof of your Institutional affiliation (currently valid University of St Andrews/SOAS photo ID) will need to be shown for admission.

Please return this form to the conference organiser, Dr P. Churchill, preferably as an email attachment to histconf@st-andrews.ac.uk

Alternatively, if this is not possible, please post the completed form to Dr Churchill at School of History, University of St Andrews, The Scores, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9BA.

The closing date for applications is noon (GMT+1) Wednesday 28 Sept. 2016.

The conference organiser will be in touch shortly after receipt of the application form to acknowledge receipt and, if applicable, to request payment. Payment will need to be made before the start of the conference. Payment options include cheque and electronic (BACS) transfer.
